

WE NOMINATE

Matthew Davidson, a member of Princeton University's coaching staff since 1946 and a specialist in physical education for the past quarter-century, who this Saturday, together with 16 other graduates of Ithaca College, Ithaca, N. Y., will be honored at that institution's Mid-Century Convocation for "distinguished accomplishments in their chosen professions." Described by Charles W. Caldwell Jr., Football's "Coach of the Year" in 1950, as one of the "major reasons why Princeton football has experienced the success it has in recent years," the unassuming 48-year old Davidson will receive his citation "in absentia" in view of a previous baseball engagement on the Yale campus.

Currently directing freshman baseball and football, Davidson twice in four years has developed championship teams. In the fall of 1947, the Class of 1951—whose members were to dominate the undefeated varsity of 1950—gave Old Nassau its first perfect freshman football record since 1934, while last spring the first-year nine sent statisticians scurrying to the archives to find that Princeton had last fielded an all-winning baseball club in 1913.

Davidson, a native of Lima, N. Y., and a four-spot coach when he launched his career in 1926, is positive in his approach to anything and is the first to assert that athletics, although an integral part of education, must be kept in proportion to the primary aspects of university life. Last fall, with educators and athletic directors debating the advisability of permitting freshmen to participate in varsity sports, Davidson described freshman year as a period of transition, stating that "you can't over-accelerate in studies," that "it would be criminal to push maturing boys into what amount to advanced courses in athletics."

Taking his bachelor's and advanced degrees at Ithaca, Davidson as a high school coach in New York State carried forward graduate studies at Columbia and the University of Michigan. While at Washington Irving High School, Tarrytown, his headquarters for 16 years, he gained recognition for installing a pioneering testing program in physical education, which integrated body building with the intramural and interscholastic athletic programs. His first post was in the Mineville High School, where, with a total of 38 boys to draw from, he produced a state championship basketball team and turned out a football unit that scored 449 points in 10 games.

For insisting that athletics are a means to an end and never an end in themselves; for deriving his greatest satisfaction from his year-after-year association with young men; for modestly wondering why an institution of learning honors a man "for doing what he hopes he does best;" he is TOWN TOPICS' nominee for

Topics of the Town

Random Notes. The prime minister of Israel, David Ben Gurion, will be in town Sunday morning to discuss his country's multi-million dollar bond issue with a resident of this community who well understands complex figures. He is Dr. Albert Einstein.

The Bell Telephone Company will move its business offices next month to the new Gallup and Robinson building at 34 Chambers Street. Bills will be payable there (with considerably more parking space available than at 201 Nassau Street), with the latter building acquiring expanded room for switchboards.

Saturday night's enjoyable concert by the Columbus Boychoir allowed the sponsoring Rotary Club to pay off the balance of its pledge to Princeton Hospital. The service organization's contribution was $3,000.

The current issue of Colliers includes an illustrated feature of interest to Princetonians on Educational Testing Service. It's entitled
"They Know All the Answers."

Parade dates: Memorial Day
(May 30), when the Ninth Division Band from Fort Dix will accompany Secretary of the Army Frank Pace up Nassau Street; June 9, when class reunions will march down Prospect Avenue to University Field; June 22, when the annual fire department inspection will take the community's three companies through town to the Battle Monument.

Sign-of-the-times-note: for the fourth month in a row, the cost of food has gone up and the amount of garbage collected by the borough has gone down.

For the MacArthur crack of the week, see the Lahiere Motor Sales advertisement on page six.

Preparedness. A comprehensive questionnaire that asks a score of questions, records past experience in civilian defense work and seeks to enlist volunteers for the future will be circulated throughout the community starting next week.
Door-to-door canvassing by block wardens is planned, with the cooperation of every resident over 16 to be asked in providing answers in detail.

The Civil Defense Council hopes to compile a considerable store of information on special skills available in the area, as well as to learn details on such points as car and truck ownership, linguistic ability, previous military service, available rooms, beds and so forth in the event of evacuation of metropolitan centers. Incidental information will include such points as blood

The Truth of the Matter. For a community which prides itself on having many superior qualities, Princeton has never been able to stand in the front rank when recreational facilities are under consideration. This week, to its lack of adequate play areas, the town could add a forthright and voluminous (26,000-word) report on the inadequacy of its public library.

Dr. Joseph L. Wheeler, a consultant on library administration for the past quarter-century, is covering every phase of service to Princetonians in this field, touching on facilities, policy, operation, the growth of the area in the next two decades and what should be done to provide an adequate public library for a town of this kind. Showing it to be a very high "library use" community, the report finds it is not the sort "where a half-hearted, half-financed, poorly-housed public library will satisfy the public."

Asserting that the program is one of "attempting to do too much with too little," the survey attributes the situation to a lack of funds (a current budget of $21,000 in contrast to one of $49,000, deemed essential to make provisions for the Princeton community 20 years hence); an inadequate staff of trained workers; and a poor building with totally insufficient space (about one-third to a fourth of what it should be; "reader seats" numbering 10, in contrast to 70 needed now and 110 for purposes of proper growth).

Enumerating various ways in which current conditions "waste the taxpayer's money," and delving deeply into facts surrounding the genesis of free service to township residents—a policy discontinued last Winter as a result of the survey, the report is often minute in its detail. Major changes are recommended in the book collection, in daily procedure, in personnel policy, in service to the public.

Biggest of all the suggestions advanced are those on the need for a new building. Among the proposals: acquisition of the present post office, when the government abandons it for a new one; purchase of the vacant lot on the northeast corner of Nassau Street and Palmer Square for a new building; an end of use of The Garden Theatre for motion picture purposes, with resultant ability to use the entire plot on that corner of Nassau and Vandeventer for library purposes. The figures advanced for an estimated cost of a new building approached a quarter of a million dollars.

But all that is set forth as the ultimate, with many a change possible even under present crowded conditions. With copies of the report available at the library to interested individuals and organizations, the foundation for correcting an existing weakness in the community had clearly been presented to Princetonians.

Miscellany, Wednesday evening at 8:15 has been set as the time for a meeting of the mayor and council with residents of Park Place interested in the question of municipal purchase of land behind their homes for an off-street parking lot. The session will be held in Borough Hall.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Dorman, Franklin Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Galie Madden, 16 Green; Mr. and Mrs. James King, Rosedale Road; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Saven, R.D. 2; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swinerton, 131 Ewing; Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Green, 228-A Halsey.

Also, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Putis, 10 Stoneworth; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Reynolds, 404-B Devereux; Dr. and Mrs. Edward D. H. Johnson, 24 College Road; Mr. and Mrs. Rowan Boone, Greenhouse Drive; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Groupe, R.D. 3.

It's New to Us

(SUMMER BREAD AND BUTTERS)

Considerate house guests to take along on summer week-ends, all designed in say thank-you prettily on parting. They'll work for your bread and butter long after you're gone.

Tussy's Summer Coolers. Pretty pale cologne in lighter-than-air fragrances to use lavishly when the sun rises high. Not one ounce extravagant, for during May you get a big $2 worth for $1. Carnation, Early Irish, New Flame are the scents. At Thorne's, 168 Nassau Street.

Summer Ties. New to Princeton—but to the knowing, their fame precedes them. The Brozini library collection of necktie designs evolved from distinguished bindings of rare books . . . printed and made by hand to please even the most impeccable male.

Quiet, conservative—these are, we believe, the kind of thing he would pick if left to his own devices. But a designing weekend guest could turn those devices in her direction. Now at the Town Shop, 12 Nassau.

Telegift via Western Union. New twist to the old cliché. 'Til now it's been only that lovely stuff, money, your own sentiments or flowers to wire for that last-minute boat or train-taking. But now you can send a gift by telegraph—one of 75 in fact—neatly listed at your Western Union office.

There's everything from a two-pound box of assorted chocolates for $4 (plus wire) to the King James Version of the Bible at $8, with children's coaster wagons, L-P recordings and pressure cookers in between. Personally we can't think of a nicer way to do our Christmas shopping, and are planning to put our feet on the table, eat a box of the chocolates and watch the wires go out. But if you have people to remember (like mothers) before then, you might scan the list at Western Union, 92 Nassau Street.

Soaps in Chamois. More masculine addenda by Brozini: three hefty cakes of hard-milled, easy-lathering soap tied up in a chamois that can later do odd jobs around the house like window-washing or car-polishing. Not to be given lightly to gentlemen who prefer golf, bourbon—or both, but fun if he's proud of his homework. Four-fifty at the Town Shop.

Sun Clio's. Pretty colored clip-ons to make the most of summer sunglasses. The basic frames are transparent and hold fine Grantley ground lenses.

They come with red, dark blue, tortoise, pale blue and pink extras that clip along the top of the frame for changeovers. Three dollars takes the works to a weekend house in a neat red case. At Thorne's.

Plaid in a Poke Bag. We sold ourselves so hard on this we walked right out with the model. Red and green tartan plaid, bound in rawhide by the famed French designer, Hermes, makes a ten-inch draw-string tote bag that (mirabile dictu!) comes straight from the Paris Couture to you for a mere $6.30, tax inclusive. And just to leave you breathless—it's plastic lined for heach carryings-on. At Luttman's, 130 Nassau.

Klopp, 73½ Harrison. Pictures taken by members of the Princeton Photographic group on display Saturday at The Little Gallery, 39 Palmer Square.

The community has gained a new research organization: Management Planning of Washington, Inc., which, like the Tax Institute, has moved its general administration offices from New York to Princeton. Its new home is 192 Nassau Street, more familiarly known as the Cook building.

With offices located in New York, Washington and a dozen other cities, Management Planning maintains a staff of specialists in such fields as economics, finance, taxation and government relations. It serves corporations throughout the country, as well as trade associations, law and accounting firms, providing them with solutions to practical business problems.

The Princeton Folk Dancing Group, gaily attired in western garb, won top honors at Group Arts' Squirt Dance Festival Saturday night with dancers from the Princeton Y.W. and Trenton Y.M.C.A. sharing second prize. Members of the winning entry are the Misses Mary Miller, Ann Lu Bera and Cornell Messler, Mrs. Lillian Sherman, Albert Earle, Thomas Evans, Eugene Salatin and Patrick Billingsley.

Sumner Rulon-Miller will captain the ancients in the annual father-and-son baseball game at the Country Day School Saturday afternoon, with his son Harry heading the revenge-bent school team. The contest will be a feature of the school's annual fair.

An exhibition of the works of art of Elsa Frankl, wife of Dr. Paul Frankl, will be open at their home, 32 Wiggins Street, through next Thursday. Oil paintings, sculpture, ceramics and watercolors (the latter including many sketches of European countries) will be on display. Hours: 4-6 and 8-9.

Joseph Hagadorn and Lawrence Dupraz have been elected to membership in Mercer Engine Co. No. 3, Robert Anderson to Engine Co. No. 1. James Kopliner, having completed his first year on the police force, has been advanced to the rank of patrolman with the compliments of the mayor and council for a "highly satisfactory start in his new duties."

Charles T. Cowenhoven, Jr., of Lafayette Road has completed extensive recodification of the borough's ordinances, with the result that the municipality's legislation has been brought up to date from 1939. His volunteer services were commended Tuesday night in a resolution forwarded to him by the mayor and council.

ALEXANDER HALL

The Princeton University Orchestra will be presented Sunday evening at 8:30 by the Friends of Music. Russell A. Cook will conduct; the program will include the Overture "Iphigenia in Aulis," Gluck; Symphony No. 99 in E flat major, Haydn; Suite "Capriol," Warlock; and Rumanian Folk Dances, Bartok. Admission is free and no tickets are required.

THE PLAYHOUSE

Follow the Sun (Thurs.-Sat.), the story of a great golfer, is a picture everyone should like, whether or not he follows the sport. The true-to-life record of Ben Hogan's climb up the championship trail and his amazing comeback after barely escaping death in a Texas automobile accident, it's told with a fine blend of authenticity and warm-heartedness. With Glenn Ford and Anne Baxter.

Appointment with Danger (Sun.-Tues.) casts Alan Ladd as a postal inspector charged with solving a murder and preventing a million-dollar robbery of Federal funds. Phyllis Calvert, a nun, is the principal witness in a typical Hollywood drama of moral strength vs. crime and corruption. Routine but well paced.

The Thing (Wed.-Sat.) has achieved considerably better than average stature as a tale of invasion of the earth by an unknown monster from another planet. The strange doings, told with Howard Hawks' vivid imagination, take place in the vicinity of the North Pole. Margaret Sheridan and Kenneth Tobey head the cast in a good adventure-mystery.

THE GARDEN

Lightning Strikes Twice (Fri.-Sat.) spins an involved yarn about an accused wife-killer who is freed by a jury and the efforts of his second mate to clear his name. Ruth Roman and Richard Todd in a distinctly unsatisfactory mystery-romance.

A Message to Garcia (Mon.-Tues.), a tale of heroism in the Spanish-American war, is now 15 years old. Produced in 1936 by Darryl Zanuck, it starred Barbara Stanwyck and the late Wallace Beery. Some action and suspense but rather ancient entertainment.

The Blue Lamp (Wed.-Thurs.) is a British-made crime drama that shows how veteran detectives track down a young criminal wanted for shooting a policeman. Done in semi-documentary style and given the benefit of able characterizations, the picture moves very slowly in comparison with American films of this kind.

Raton Pass (Fri.-Sat.) casts Patricia Neal as a ruthless, lawless female who is interested in men only as a means to her land-grabbing activities in the New Mexico territory. Life is cheap, as bullets drop members of the various factions like flies but no amount of shooting and doublecrossing keeps the plot from being involved and meaningless.

SPORTS IN SHORT

Tops in the East. Virtually all the funing on the athletic front will be done away from Princeton this weekend, with only a freshman tennis match and a couple of minor crew races on Lake Carnegie on the home schedule. The baseball team heads for New England to meet Harvard and Brown; the track team and three crews will be at Ithaca, the latter for the Carnegie Cup; and the unbeaten golf, tennis and lacrosse teams will all pursue their destinies away from familiar surroundings.

The past week saw Nassau athletic fortunes reach a new high, as the almost unbelievable skein of triumphs was lengthened even further. Princeton currently finds itself with baseball and tennis teams that are the best in the East and among the top five in the nation; an unbeaten golf team likely to finish well up in the Eastern intercollegiate at New Haven this weekend; a crew that may well add the Carnegie Cup to its trophies to rank with the favorites in the Eastern sprint championships here May 19; and a lacrosse team that is a good bet to win the national title.

It's been a month since the baseball team last lost, but that defeat makes the current trip to Cambridge and Providence a tough one. With competition stiff in the Eastern League this season, one slip this weekend and the Tigers are virtually certain to lose out on the first-place finish they're seeking for the third year in a row. Unfortunately, rain will have the same effect as a defeat, so the Nassau nine will not only have to be good but lucky.

It will be Harvard Friday and Brown Saturday, and if the Bruins win their games with Dartmouth and Navy this week, the clash at Providence will be for the title. Based on his performance against Georgetown Saturday, Harry Brightman is likely to get the nod to pitch the Brown game.

The junior left-hander let the hard-hitting visitors down with four hits, two of them scratch, and a lone unearned run in hanging up a notable 3-1 triumph. His curve was in perfect control, his fast ball blazed and his let-up pitch kept the opposition guessing. After its run in the third, Georgetown got only two men as far as second—both on errors—and hit only five balls out of the infield.

Jack Blessing's 450-foot blast that went for an easy home run to dead center tied the score in the fourth and in the seventh, the Tigers led the game without a hit. Pitcher Bob McNabb blew up, walking the will play Lambertville away Sunday.

Monday evening saw the Twin-M League open its season, with Princeton squealing Pennington, 3-1, behind Ogonofski's five-hit pitching. Jim Brown and Nick Ross were the big guns for the victors, scoring all the runs between them. Belle Mead will be here Tuesday at the high school field, Hightstown is on the schedule Monday (away) and Pennington will be here next Thursday.

Irwin Weiss saw his Princeton High track team win the Newark Board of Education Invitation Meet Saturday while in competition with 33 other teams. The Little Tigers topped their division with 34 points to 13½ for the next entry, proving beyond doubt that this year's outfit is another powerhouse with good balance.

Clyde "Buster" Thomas tied for first in the high jump and placed second in the 220, while Jim Scudler won the broad jump and Lorenzo Fletcher took the low hurdles. Then, on Tuesday afternoon, the Blue and White won its 26th dual meet in a row by trouncing unbeaten Long Branch, 86½ to 30½.

Jim Granberry was a double winner as the victors took ten of 13 first places, winning the javelin and setting a new school record (140 feet, 2 inches) in the discus. Trenton Catholic was expected to be the next victim this Thursday afternoon.

Princeton High's ball team won, 8-4, over Pennington Tuesday to bring its record up to 2-2. Tom Robins was the winning hurler as a six-run third inning wrapped up the game for the Blue and White.

Hun School has also reached the .500 mark, topping Solebury last Friday and Moorestown Friends Tuesday to make it 6-6 for the season. Nine runs in the first two innings made a 12-3 win over Solebury a simple matter as Russ Summers and George Tidey hit well for the victors. Ken Ostrove was the winning pitcher.

Pat Tidey threw another good game Tuesday, hurling a 9-3 win over Moorestown Friends. Bill Hogarty hammered a single and a home run to drive in four markers, while Dennis Beecher's two-run single capped the winning rally in the fifth.

and in the seventh, the Tigers iced the game without a hit. Pitcher Boh McNabb blew up, walking the first two men and making a costly misplay on Ed Irvin's bunt to fill the bases. After Fairchild popped out, Will Prior walked to force in one run and Blessing fired to center to bring in another. It was the seventh in a row for the Orange and Black.

Friday had seen Dartmouth take advantage of some shaky pitching by Dave Sisler and four Princeton errors to rack up six runs in the first seven innings. But the Tigers undid their best hitting display of the year, 12 blows good for 15 bases wrapping up a 10-6 triumph. Pay Chirglin's two-inning relief stint assured the victory.

When Cornell whacked Brown Saturday, it shoved the Tigers into a first-place tie with the Rhode Island nine. Each had a 3-1 mark at mid-week; Cornell remains a threat with only a single loss charged against it but the Ithacans have five games to go.

Compton Cup Returns. A great racing start by Harvard's line crew had Princeton half a length back in the first quarter mile on the Charles River at Cambridge Saturday. It was a tough spot for a young headland fighting to overcome the

The trucks that do the most for you

Why a "Job-Rated" truck is Your safest investment

A "Job-Rated" truck is engineered at the factory to fit a specific job . . . save you money . . . last longer. Every unit from engine to rear axle is "Job-Rated"—engineered to haul a specific load over the roads you travel and at the speeds you require.

Every unit that SUPPORTS the frame, the axle, the springs, wheels and other parts is engineered right to provide the strength and capacity needed.

Every unit that MOVES the load—engine, clutch, transmission, propeller shaft, rear axle and others—is engineered right to meet a particular operating condition.

Safer stops with "Job-Rated" brakes

Step on the brakes of your Dodge "Job-Rated" truck and you're sure of smooth stopping action far in excess of normal requirements. You get long-lasting Cyclobond "no-rivet" brake lining—with lining area increased as G.V.W. rating goes up! Now, on models 1½-ton and up, except air brake models, you get another Dodge "first"—new Tapered, Molded Cyclobond brake lining. It's longer-lasting, extra quiet—free from "chatter," "tra" and "clack"—and brake also adds to safety.

Safer visibility with "Pilot-House" cabs

When you drive a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck you look through the biggest windshield of any popular truck! You have a clear close-up of the road, made possible by new, lower hood line. For even greater visibility you can get De Luxe and Custom cabs with rear quarter windows. All-steel "Pilot-House" cabs provide extra safety, too. Top, floor and sides are welded together—not bolted! No models with side windows. Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks are the safest on the road!

FLUID DRIVE now available

Only Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks offer this great "exclusive"—available on all 1½-ton and 1-ton models and Route-Vans. Helps assure less wheel-spinning on slippery surfaces . . . less tendency to spin in mud, sand, snow or wherever the going is tough. What's more, gyro Fluid Drive makes driving easier, helps protect loads, lowers upkeep costs, and lengthens truck life.

Muguet in Your Pocket. The French say you're lucky if you carry a spray of Lillies of the Valley in your pocket. Not being Gallic, we've never seen it work, but suspect any hostess would feel lucky if she got a tiny purse flacon of Coty's Muguet des Bois to take a-witching with her. One dollar plus tax at Thorne's.

Connoisseur Scarves. Collector's items to give sparingly . . . to treasure yourself for years. Brooke Cadwallader's wonderful scarf designs, in town for the first time in a new collection of tiny string ties to great squares at, fittingly enough, the Town Shop.

If you've ever owned one, we need say no more; you have the habit. But if you haven't seen the Cadwallader touch on pure silk and chiffon, do stop by for a few pleasurable minutes. From as little as $2.

Easy Travel Autobags. You don't have to bother packing with these. Just move your clothes right out of your closet, hangars and all and zip them into these bright plaid covers. They'll hang in your car with their own special hooks . . . fold to half-the-size for easy carrying. See them, and their traveling companion, the Swag Bag at Luttman's.
